TAFE Illawarra and Canberra Institute of Technology sign Memorandum of Understanding

TAFE Illawarra will sign a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Canberra Institute of Technology (CIT) on Wednesday 28 November 2012.

TAFE Illawarra Institute Director, Ms Dianne Murray and CIT Chief Executive Mr Adrian Marron will sign the MOU. The MOU agrees that both parties will commit to exploring and promoting areas of mutual interest in vocational education and training.

Ms Murray highlighted the importance of the close ties the MOU will establish to achieve strategically important educational outcomes for the Greater Capital Region and South Eastern NSW.

“We are pleased to enter into this MOU and formalise arrangements which will enable the organisations to explore new models of provision of education,” said Ms Murray.

“The partnership will also enable TAFE Illawarra to work with CIT to develop new initiatives in learning including jointly developed and offered courses, using technology to assist delivery,” added Ms Murray.

Mr Marron CIT said the MOU held exciting opportunities for sharing each institutions specialist facilities and staff, as well as being able to source joint-funding opportunities from the State, Territory and Federal Governments.

“Our MOU acts as an extension of the recent cross-border MOU signed by the NSW Premier and the ACT Chief Minister,” Mr Marron said.

“By strengthening our cooperation we can move into the future as stronger public education providers, bringing quality education and life enhancing career training to the people of the greater ACT- Illawarra region.”
